Summary

Overall summary along with Risk/Mitigant if any and detailed comment on end use

The applicant has one active loan and is running a stable business. However, proper stock purchase bills are not being maintained. The applicant does not have sufficient knowledge of the business, as her husband manages all business activities. A name board was observed at the visited premises. Stock was available, and a few bills were verified during the visit. Employees were present, and work was actively in progress at the premises.
